

¡Empecemos!

1. Can you ask someone's name and give your name? (p. 6)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate his or her name?</li> <li>• How would you give your name?</li> <li>• How would you ask an adult's name?</li> <li>• How would you ask who someone is?</li> <li>• How would you say who someone is?</li> </ul>
2. Can you greet someone and say goodbye? (p. 8)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you greet and say goodbye to your teacher?</li> </ul>
3. Can you ask how someone is and tell how you are? (p. 8)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask your teacher how he or she is?</li> <li>• How would you tell how you are?</li> </ul>
4. Can you introduce someone and respond to an introduction? (p. 10)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you introduce a classmate to your teacher?</li> <li>• How would you respond to an introduction?</li> </ul>
5. Can you ask where someone is from and tell where you are from? (p. 11)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate where he or she is from?</li> <li>• How would you tell where you are from?</li> </ul>
6. Can you ask for someone's phone number and give yours? (p. 19)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate his or her phone number?</li> <li>• How would you tell your phone number?</li> </ul>
7. Can you ask and tell what time it is? (p. 20)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask what time it is?</li> <li>• How would you say the time now?</li> </ul>
8. Can you ask and answer about the date and day of the week? (p. 21)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you say today's date?</li> <li>• How would you ask what day it is?</li> </ul>
9. Can you ask for someone's e-mail address and give yours? (p. 23)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate his or her e-mail address?</li> <li>• How would you say your e-mail address?</li> </ul>

A conocernos

1. Can you ask what someone is like and describe someone? (p. 45)

- How would you ask a classmate what his or her best friend is like?
- How would you describe what your best friend is like?

2. Can you ask and tell someone's age and birthday? (p. 47)

- How would you ask a classmate how old he or she is?
- How would you ask when his or her birthday is?
- How would you ask him or her how old another classmate is?
- How would you tell your age and birthday?
- How would you tell a friend's age and birthday?

3. Can you ask someone what he or she likes and tell what you like and don't like? (p. 57)

- How would you ask a classmate if he or she likes something?
- How would you ask a friend what he or she likes more?
- How would you say you like something?

4. Can you ask for and give a description of something? (p. 58)

- How would you ask someone to describe something?
- How would you describe something?

¡Empecemos!

1. Can you ask someone's name and give your name? (p. 6)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate his or her name?</li> <li>• How would you give your name?</li> <li>• How would you ask an adult's name?</li> <li>• How would you ask who someone is?</li> <li>• How would you say who someone is?</li> </ul>
2. Can you greet someone and say goodbye? (p. 8)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you greet and say goodbye to your teacher?</li> </ul>
3. Can you ask how someone is and tell how you are? (p. 8)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask your teacher how he or she is?</li> <li>• How would you tell how you are?</li> </ul>
4. Can you introduce someone and respond to an introduction? (p. 10)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you introduce a classmate to your teacher?</li> <li>• How would you respond to an introduction?</li> </ul>
5. Can you ask where someone is from and tell where you are from? (p. 11)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate where he or she is from?</li> <li>• How would you tell where you are from?</li> </ul>
6. Can you ask for someone's phone number and give yours? (p. 19)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate his or her phone number?</li> <li>• How would you tell your phone number?</li> </ul>
7. Can you ask and tell what time it is? (p. 20)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask what time it is?</li> <li>• How would you say the time now?</li> </ul>
8. Can you ask and answer about the date and day of the week? (p. 21)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you say today's date?</li> <li>• How would you ask what day it is?</li> </ul>
9. Can you ask for someone's e-mail address and give yours? (p. 23)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate his or her e-mail address?</li> <li>• How would you say your e-mail address?</li> </ul>

A conocernos

1. Can you ask what someone is like and describe someone? (p. 45)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate what his or her best friend is like?</li> <li>• How would you describe what your best friend is like?</li> </ul>
2. Can you ask and tell someone's age and birthday? (p. 47)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate how old he or she is?</li> <li>• How would you ask when his or her birthday is?</li> <li>• How would you ask him or her how old another classmate is?</li> <li>• How would you tell your age and birthday?</li> <li>• How would you tell a friend's age and birthday?</li> </ul>
3. Can you ask someone what he or she likes and tell what you like and don't like? (p. 57)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate if he or she likes something?</li> <li>• How would you ask a friend what he or she likes more?</li> <li>• How would you say you like something?</li> </ul>
4. Can you ask for and give a description of something? (p. 58)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask someone to describe something?</li> <li>• How would you describe something?</li> </ul>

¿Qué te gusta hacer?

1. Can you ask what others like to do? (p. 83)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate what he or she likes to do?</li> <li>• How would you ask your classmate what other friends like to do?</li> </ul>
2. Can you tell what you and others like to do and with whom? (p. 83)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you tell a classmate that you like to play tennis with your friends?</li> <li>• How would you say that your friend likes to go bike riding?</li> </ul>
3. Can you ask what a friend wants to do and tell what you want to do? (p. 85)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate if he or she wants to play chess with you?</li> <li>• How would you say that you don't want to watch television today?</li> </ul>
4. Can you ask about everyday activities? (p. 95)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate what he or she does on weekends?</li> <li>• How would you ask your classmate what another friend does?</li> </ul>
5. Can you respond to questions about everyday activities? (p. 95)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you tell a classmate that you go to the gym on Saturdays?</li> <li>• How would you say that another friend doesn't go anywhere?</li> <li>• How would you say that you don't go to the park when the weather is bad?</li> </ul>
6. Can you ask and answer how often? (p. 96)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate how often he or she goes to the gym?</li> <li>• How would you say you almost never go to the park?</li> <li>• How would you say that you almost always go to soccer practice after classes?</li> </ul>

La vida escolar

1. Can you ask someone what he or she has? (p. 121)	• How would you ask a classmate if he/she has some folders?
2. Can you ask someone what he or she needs? (p. 121)	• How would you ask a classmate if he/she needs a bookbag?
3. Can you say what you have or need? (p. 121)	• How would you say you need a dictionary for Spanish class? • How would you say you have a ton of pencils?
4. Can you ask someone about his or her classes and tell about yours? (p. 122)	• How would you ask a classmate what his/her favorite subject is? • How would you tell which classes you have this afternoon?
5. Can you ask and talk about plans? (p. 133)	• How would you ask a classmate what he or she is going to do next Saturday? • How would you say that you're going to go to the mall in the afternoon?
6. Can you invite a friend to do something? (p. 134)	• How would you ask a friend to go with you to a soccer game? • How would you check that a friend is coming with you to the cafeteria?
7. Can you respond to invitations? (p. 134)	• How would you say "yes, of course"? • How would you say that you're not going because you have to study?

En casa con la familia

1. Can you ask about people and family relationships? (p. 159)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate how many people are in his/her family?</li> <li>• How would you ask a friend what his/her parents are like?</li> </ul>
2. Can you describe people and tell about family relationships? (p. 159)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you say that your parents have brown hair and wear glasses?</li> <li>• How would you say that your grandfather is tall and thin, that he has gray hair, and that he has five grandchildren?</li> </ul>
3. Can you ask others to describe where they live? (p. 171)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a friend where he/she lives?</li> <li>• How would you ask a classmate what his/her house is like?</li> </ul>
4. Can you describe where you live? (p. 171)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you say that you live in an apartment in a small four-story building?</li> <li>• How would you say the apartment has three bedrooms, two baths, a living room, and a kitchen?</li> </ul>
5. Can you ask and tell about responsibilities? (p. 172)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How would you ask a classmate what he/she thinks about helping out at home?</li> <li>• How would you say that your mom almost always cleans the kitchen?</li> <li>• How would you say you have to cut the grass?</li> <li>• How would you say that your sister never has to clean the bathroom and it seems unfair to you?</li> </ul>